This Stylish home has an immense potential for a visionary to bring it back to its original glory both inside and outside. Astute buyers will quickly see how to take it beyond original glory with an already integrated large living space extension just begging to break out into the back garden!

Set on a large 809m² corner block this property feels huge because it is. A big separate garage/workshop shed has a high tilt door access to the road, and a double gated rear access gives even more possibilities, so your well optioned for workshopping, storage of equipment, boats, caravans etc?

Set in an older part of Portarlington, it provides easy walking to the foreshore, local shops and Pier, and to the Golf Club. This home is begging for refurbishment and whoever does will be well rewarded for their efforts.
