5  3  2

Perfectly positioned just moments from Portarlington's town centre, cafés, foreshore and ferry terminal, 55A Willis Street presents an exceptional opportunity for multigenerational living, dual occupancy or a high-performing investment. Thoughtfully designed with two fully self-contained living zones, this unique property offers independence, comfort and versatility rarely found so close to the coast.

The home's clever configuration provides two complete residences under one roof, each with its own living area, kitchen, bedrooms, bathroom and private outdoor space. This arrangement is ideal for extended family members who value independence, adult children seeking their own retreat, visiting guests, or investors. The separation
